ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ANN KIRK WARREN ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

Recommendation
It is recommended that the Board of Governors establish the Ann Kirk Warren Endowed Scholarship.

This scholarship fund is established to recognize scholastic achievement, to encourage continued progress and to provide assistance to students in financing their education in the College of Nursing.

Background

Ann Kirk Warren received her master’s degree from the Wayne State University College of Liberal Arts and Sciences on December 31, 1990. She is a resident of Grosse Pointe Woods and an active member of her community. She chose to not include a great detail of biographical information on herself in the provisions for this endowment and instead chose to highlight the College of Nursing as shown below.

The College of Nursing is an integral part of Wayne State University, a research institution classified as a doctoral-extensive research university by the Carnegie Foundation - a classification that places Wayne State in the top 2.5 percent of all institutions. The National Science Foundation ranks Wayne State as among the top 50 public research universities. Both the college and university share an urban research, teaching and service mission. The College of Nursing prepares its students to be excellent clinicians, caregivers and future educators for the next generation of nurses.

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SHEILA WELCH ENDOWED HILBERRY FELLOWSHIP SUPPORT FUND

Recommendation
It is recommended that the Board of Governors establish the Sheila Welch Endowed Hilberry Fellowship Support Fund.

The Sheila Welch Endowed Hilberry Fellowship Support Fund is being established to recognize excellence and achievement as demonstrated by graduate students in the area of theater and to encourage the continued progress of Hilberry Repertory Company members at Wayne State University.

Background

The Sheila Welch Endowed Hilberry Fellowship Fund is established by Arthur and Mary Voisin in honor of Mary’s mother who was an avid supporter of the fine arts in the Detroit metropolitan area. She loved great books and drama, classical music; and she was a frequent supporter of the Hilberry Theater, Orchestra Hall, The Detroit Institute of Arts, the Stratford Festival, and any choral concert directed by Wayne State’s Dr. Harry Langsford. Sheila’s special love for literature, theater, and music was given to her children and family; and now, through this fellowship, her legacy of devotion to the arts will be kindled forever.
